

The Circle of Memory

I was walking home after school, through the crowd and school bell was ringing.

Please read the captions and try creating the sounds with whatever you can come up with. They could be clapping, foot stepping, whistling or instrumental. Use your imagination and figure out what the captions sound like. Remember they are your own sounds, and there is no good or bad, it's all about the experience.

I went to my art class after school, paint and make friends.

My mom had my snack ready, same as the air conditioner.

It was a Sunday, we had parade with the band. I heard parents talking and foot stepping.

I made some cool sound effects for my video game. It has strong rhythmic feature that delivers unique feelings.
